

!! Final Exam !!

This is your final exam for this course. You may use the Manual for Church Officers & Boards to help you with your answers. We would like your answers long enough to show that you understand the material. You can give your answers in signs using a video camera or you can write them. It is your choice.

1. Why does a church need officers and committees? Isn't the pastor called to do these things?
2. A person is interested in joining your church.
Part A. Draw an organizational chart showing the different departments in your church.
Part B. Explain to him how the organization of the church serves God and the people.
3. Is evangelism more difficult for a deaf person witnessing to other deaf people than for a hearing person witnessing to hearing people? Yes or no. Explain your answer in depth.
4. The Education Committee has decided to have Bible study at the church and also in one of the member's homes during the week. Give two advantages and two disadvantages for each location and explain why.
5. How do we obtain gifts or skills from God? What must we do with these gifts or skills?
